

I have known Rebecca for at least 10 years. In this time, I have enjoyed watching Rebecca deepen her innate wisdom and embrace her inner beauty. When doing a hypnosis session with Rebecca, I feel very comfortable, secure and can completely relax so I can open up to the journey upon which we embark. She has a very sensitive spirit and seems to quickly empathize with my concerns, gently leading me through challenging, difficult, traumatic or complex issues. Her degree of compassion extends far beyond her earthly years. I trust her with my greatest fears and deepest secrets because I know she honors her gifts enough to know privacy is of the utmost importance to a client when delving into personal subjects.

When Rebecca introduced me to her line of skin care products, I considered these products to simply be an extension of her personal development for optimum health and well being not only for herself, but for her friends and clients. Her skin truly radiates her natural light and beauty. Her products are soothing and gentle on my chemically sensitive skin yet moisturizing but not oily. In the dry climate of a high desert altitude, this is a perfect combination for me. When my fussy 77 year old Mother sampled my nighttime moisturizer, she fell in love with Rebecca's lotions and has been a fan ever since.
